V#3 – And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censor; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne..

V#4 – And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

V#5 – And the angel took the censer, and filled it with the fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

V#6 – And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

V#7 - The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third Part of trees was burnt up, and all Green grass was burnt up.

V#8 – And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became as blood;

V#9 – And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

V#10 – And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

V#11 – And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter

V#12 – The fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

V#13 – And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!
